

Block Party Notice
City Clerk's Office

To Block Party Applicant:

For the safety and convenience of its residents, the City of Countryside Public Works Department will provide the required barricades for your upcoming block party.

Barricades will be dropped off at the corners sandwiching your block BEFORE the scheduled block party. The barricades will be picked up the first business day AFTER the block party from the same location. It is the responsibility of the Applicant to return all barricades to the corners and in good condition.
