GARAGE SALES

C. Special Requirements:

1. Permit Required: It shall be unlawful for any person, group or not for profit organization to engage in a "garage sale" as defined herein without first obtaining a permit from the City Clerk.
2. Limitation On Garage Sales: No person, group or not for profit organization will be issued a permit for a garage sale at the same street address more than two (2) times in any one calendar year. A garage sale permit shall not extend for more than three (3) consecutive days during any week.
3. Garage Sale Signs:
 - a. Garage sale signs shall be freestanding, not affixed to any permanent sign, post, building, wall, vehicle, tree, bush, rock, structure, landscape feature, or similar item.
 - b. Garage sale signs shall not exceed six (6) square feet in area.
 - c. Each garage sale sign shall contain:
 - 1) The address of the sale, and
 - 2) The times and dates of the sale (as detailed on the permit application), and
 - 3) If the sale is conducted by a for profit or not for profit organization, the name of such organization.
 - d. Such signs shall not be illuminated.
 - e. No such garage sale sign shall be constructed in a manner that poses a hazard, such as, but not limited to:
 - 1) Sharp, pointed, jagged surfaces.
 - 2) Each garage sale sign shall be weighted, anchored, or attached to the ground in a manner to prevent wind damage.
 - f. No garage sale sign shall be posted more than one day prior to the first date of the sale, as shown on that sign.
 - g. Each garage sale sign shall be removed no more than twelve (12) hours after the ending time and date of the sale, as shown on that sign.
