CRIME ALERT

Date: January 16, 2015

Alert #: 15-01

CRIME ALERT

Suspicious Circumstances

Countryside Officers responded to the area of the 10700 block of Maplewood and 10800 block of Cantigny for suspicious footprints in the snow around several residences in those areas. The footprints lead to windows and rear patio doors of several houses but we could not locate any signs that the subject attempted to enter any houses. One resident who had footprints around her house advised that her dog was barking and running around the house at 11:30 PM on 01/13/15.

Police in Indian Head Park have also investigated similar complaints on three separate occasions in the past week. These calls were in the areas of: 6500 block of Blackhawk; 6600 block of Osceola and the 11200 block of Arrowhead Trail.

We remind all residents to remain vigilant and observant and call 911 on any suspicious incidents in and around your neighborhood. Do not feel intimidated by calling 911, all suspicious activity incidents need to be reported. Our citizens are our partners in policing.

If you have any questions, please contact the Countryside Police Department at (708) 352-2171.
